ICON achieves Investors In People recognition

A Black Country firm's exhibition of good workforce development practice has earned it Investors in People recognition.

Icon Exhibitions & Display Ltd, based in Holly Lane, Great Wyrley in Walsall, is one of the first designers and manufacturers of exhibition stands in the Midlands to be awarded the top training standard.

The business employs 15 staff. Founded by director Wayne Ball in 1995, it designs, manufactures and constructs custom-built exhibition stands and Point of Sale units for exhibitions worldwide.

The business has recently won a contract from bathroom specialists Victoria & Albert to design and build a stand for a trade show taking place at the Dubai International Exhibition Centre.

Paul Moore of Icon Exhibitions, said: "We decided to commit to Investors in People as part of an audit we were carrying out on our personnel and management procedures."

Pam Preston, of Black Country Chamber & Business Link, said: "Icon Exhibitions is one of the first businesses in the Black Country to achieve Investors in People through the Small Firms Initiative."
